BULLETIN #1265

RE: Benjamin J. McKay, J.D., M.P.A. Hired as Executive Director of the Surplus Line Association of California

Benjamin J. McKay, J.D., M.P.A. has been hired as Executive Director of the Surplus Line Association of California, effective July 16, 2012.

Ben McKay joins the SLA after a career in both the private and public sector. Ben spent the last eight years with the Property Casualty Insurers Association of America (PCI) as their Senior Vice President for Federal Government Relations, a corporate officer position. Prior to PCI, Ben served as a Chief of Staff to a member of Congress in Washington, D.C. Other career highlights include eight years as staff to members of the Florida legislature, where he worked on insurance issues, and a tour as a regulator at the Florida Department of State, where he served as Deputy Secretary for International and Legislative Affairs and later as Chief of Staff for the department. Ben received his Juris Doctor from Catholic University, his Masters in Public Administration from Harvard University, and his Bachelor of Science from Florida State University.

Please welcome Ben to the SLA.
