BULLETIN TO ALL MEMBERS

RE: Change in Lloyd's Attorneys

It has been generally known that Lloyd's have appointed a new firm of attorneys to handle most of their American business. Since our information concerning the exact functions of the new attorneys as compared to those of Mendes & Mount was sketchy our chairman, Mr. J. H. Collins, wrote to Mendes & Mount for precise information.

Mendes & Mount replied to the effect that while they will continue to act as Lloyd's claims attorneys in the United States as heretofore, generally speaking, Underwriters' relations with our Association will be through the firm of Messrs. LeBoeuf, Lamb & Leiby, 1 Chase Manhattan Plaza, New York, New York.

It should be emphasized that it has long been the rule that Surplus Line members' transactions with Lloyd's United States attorneys should be through the medium of the stamping office.
