BULLETIN TO ALL MEMBERS:

RE: Announcement of Appointment of
Arthur D. Freeman, Jr. as Manager

As many of you already know, Ben Herrick had made plans to take early retirement. Accordingly, at the May 5th Executive Committee meeting, Art Freeman was appointed to succeed Ben effective August 28, 1981. The following release has been handed to the press.

"San Francisco - The appointment of Arthur D. Freeman, Jr. as manager of the Surplus Line Association of California has been announced by Hartley D. Cravens, Chairman of the Association's Executive Committee.

The appointment is effective August 28, 1981, to succeed A. Benjamin Herrick, whose retirement is effective that date.

Active in the industry for twenty years in both the company and brokerage ranks, Mr. Freeman joined the Association in 1977.

Mr. Cravens noted that Mr. Freeman's experience both in company underwriting and with the Association makes him well qualified to carry on the objectives of the Association. At the same time, he expressed the thanks of the Association for Mr. Herrick's many contributions during his fifteen year tenure with the Association.

James S. Pugh has been advanced from Examiner to the position of Assistant Manager. Mr. Pugh joined the Association in 1978 and has over fourteen years of industry experience."
