BULLETIN #767

SLA WORLD WIDE WEB SITE

Effective June 21, 1996, the SLA will have an active site on the World Wide Web. To view the site, we recommend that you use the Netscape Navigator or the Microsoft Internet Explorer. The Uniform Resource Locator (URL) for our site is <http://www.sla-cal.org>.

The purpose for the SLA site is to provide to the surplus line community, as well as to the general public, a wide range of information regarding the SLA's policies, procedures, organizational background, and associated events. The following are various topics that can be found on the site:

- SL1, SL2 and other filing forms (which can be printed directly from the site).
- Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's).
- Filing procedures (examples included).
- A complete up-to-date listing of SLA publications, Bulletins and Quarterlies.
- The most current List of Eligible Surplus Line Insurers (LESLI).
- Upcoming events such as the 1996 SLA Western States Conference.
- SLA contacts, officers and committees.
- SLA background and history.

The SLA intends to continue its adoption of technology with the ultimate goal of implementing the capability of electronic filing.

If you should have any questions or concerns regarding the SLA web site, please contact our Webmaster, Mark Uyeda at either (415) 434-4900 or e-mail him directly by clicking on Webmaster on the home page of the SLA site.
