BULLETIN #1400

Re: California Department of Insurance Sets Export List Hearing For December 10, 2020

The California Department of Insurance (CDI) has given official notice that the next Export List hearing will take place via telephone at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 10, 2020. Anyone wishing to participate can do so by calling 844-867-6169 and entering 5618354 as the passcode.

Participants wishing to testify will receive instructions on how to provide testimony once they have accessed the hearing.

The CDI asks participants to RSVP by November 27, 2020 at ExportListHearing@insurance.ca.gov. RSVPs should include the names of participants, the organization they represent, and the e-mail address of each participant. Although an RSVP is not required, it will help the CDI manage testimony and participation and is highly recommended. Priority for speaking opportunities will be given to those who sign up in advance.

The CDI notice advises that there may be requests to add the following products and/or variations to the Export List:

- Brush Exposed Homeowners Business
- Commercial Property Insurance for Accounts in High Brush Areas
- Class – Trucking: Commercial Auto Liability and Auto Physical Damage
- Excess Auto Liability and Excess Liability with a Substantial Auto Component
- Production Related COVID Cast, Civil Authority and Imminent Peril Insurance
- All Commercial Earthquake
- Difference in Conditions and the peril of Earthquake
- Scaffold / Scaffold Contractor
- Cyber Coverage
- Commercial Cyber Liability
- First-Dollar, Economic Loss Parametric Earthquake Gap Coverage (no physical damage requirement)
- Parametric Earthquake Insurance (no physical damage requirement, no deductible, no claims adjustment - 70% shake intensity or above threshold triggers coverage).
